Transit Connection, Inc. and Amalgamated Transit Union Local 1548. Case 01-CA-179805

October 25, 2017

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN MISCIMARRA AND MEMBERS PEARCE
AND KAPLAN

The General Counsel seeks summary judgment in this case on the grounds that there are no genuine issues of material fact as to the allegations in the complaint, and that the Board should find, as a matter of law, that the Respondent failed and refused to bargain with the Union in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by failing and refusing to respond to the Union's requests for information that is necessary and relevant to the Union's performance of its duties as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of a unit of the Respondent's employees, and by failing to furnish the information.

Pursuant to a charge and an amended charge filed on July 8 and August 30, 2016,<sup>1</sup> respectively, by Amalgamated Transit Union Local 1548 (the Union), the General Counsel issued a complaint on October 31, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by failing and refusing to respond to the Union's information requests and to furnish the requested information. The Respondent filed an answer admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On December 28, the Board issued a Decision and Order granting the General Counsel's Motion for Summary Judgment in a related refusal-to-bargain case in which the Respondent contested the Union's certification in Case 01-RC-145728 as bargaining representative of the employee unit at issue in this proceeding. Transit Connection, Inc., 365 NLRB No. 9 (2016) (Transit I). In that case, the Board found that since August 9 the Respondent had failed and refused to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act. Id.

On March 21, 2017, the General Counsel filed a Motion to Transfer Case to the Board and for Summary Judgment in the current proceeding. On June 5, 2017, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. Thereafter, the Respondent filed a response to the Board's Notice to Show Cause.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

Complaint paragraph 11 alleges that the information described in paragraph 10 "is necessary for, and relevant to, the Union's performance of its duties as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the Unit." At complaint paragraph 12, the General Counsel alleges that "[s]ince about May 17 and 24, August 9, and September 9, 2016, Respondent has failed and refused to respond to the information requests described above in paragraph 10 and to furnish the Union with the information requested by it as described above in paragraph 10." Complaint paragraph 13 alleges that by the above conduct the Respondent has refused to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

In its answer, the Respondent states that it "denies the allegation contained in Paragraph 12 of the complaint that the Respondent has been failing and refusing to bargain collectively and in good faith with the Union since May 17, 2016." It also denies that it has unlawfully refused to bargain. In its response to the show-cause notice, however, the Respondent makes clear that its only factual dispute with the complaint's allegations is based on a claim that it did not receive requests for information dated May 17 and 24. The Respondent admits that it received the information request dated August 9 and does not deny that it received the information request dated September 9. And while its answer to the complaint states that it "is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations" in paragraph 11 that the requested information "is necessary for, and relevant to, the Union's performance of its duties" as the bargaining unit's exclusive representative, it is well established that the type of information the Union requested, concerning the terms and conditions of employment of unit employees, is presumptively relevant for purposes of collective bargaining and must be furnished on request. See, e.g., Metro Health Foundation, Inc., 338 NLRB 802, 803 (2003). The Respondent has not asserted any basis for rebutting the presumptive relevance of this information. Rather, the Respondent explains in its response to the show-cause notice that its refusal to provide the information requested on and after August 9 is necessarily part of its overall refusal to bargain in order to test the Union's certification in the Transit I proceeding, which is pending review before the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

Based on the foregoing, we find that there are no material issues of fact regarding the complaint's allegations that warrant a hearing. Accordingly, we grant the General Counsel's Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a corporation with an office and place of business located at 11 A Street, Edgartown, Massachusetts (the Edgartown facility), has been engaged, pursuant to an agreement with The Martha's Vineyard Regional Transit Authority (the Authority), as the transit operator for the Authority along such routes and according to such schedules as defined by the Authority on the island of Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts.

Annually, the Respondent, in conducting its operations described above, provides bus transportation services to the Authority and the public valued in excess of $250,000 on the island of Martha's Vineyard. The Authority is a component unit of the Massachusetts Department of Transportation, which is a component unit of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, which is directly engaged in interstate commerce.

<sup>2</sup> The General Counsel's motion states that the failure to provide item 17 of the request for information ("a copy of the current revenue agreements and all modifications thereto for the services operated by the employees") is not alleged in the complaint.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act. We further find that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.<sup>3</sup>

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

The following employees of the Respondent (the unit) constitute a unit appropriate for purposes of collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9(b) of the Act:

All full-time and regular part-time operators employed by the Respondent at its 11 A Street, Edgartown, Massachusetts facility but excluding office clerical employees, managerial employees, dispatchers, mechanics, confidential employees, seasonal employees, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act, and all other employees.

On March 15, the Board certified the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. At all times since March 15, based on Section 9(a) of the Act, the Union has been the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit.

By letters dated August 9 and September 9, the Union requested that the Respondent furnish information to the Union that is relevant and necessary to the performance of its duties as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. Since about August 9, the Respondent has failed and refused to respond to the information requests.<sup>4</sup> We find that the Respondent's conduct constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain collectively with the Union in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By failing and refusing since August 9 to respond to the Union's requests for information that is necessary and relevant to the Union's performance of its duties as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the appropriate unit, and by failing to furnish the information, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has engaged in certain unfair labor practices, we shall order it to cease and desist and to take certain affirmative action designed to effectuate the policies of the Act. Specifically, having found that the Respondent violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by failing to provide the Union with information that is relevant and necessary to the Union's performance of its functions as the collective-bargaining representative of the Respondent's unit employees, we shall order the Respondent to furnish the Union with the information requested on August 9 and September 9, 2016, with the exception of item 17 in each letter.

ORDER

The National Labor Relations Board orders that the Respondent, Transit Connection, Inc., Edgartown, Massachusetts, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall

1. Cease and desist from

(a) Refusing to bargain collectively with Amalgamated Transit Union Local 1548 (the Union) by failing and refusing to furnish it with requested information that is relevant and necessary to the Union's performance of its functions as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the Respondent's unit employees.

(b) In any like or related manner interfering with, restraining, or coercing employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed them by Section 7 of the Act.

2. Take the following affirmative action necessary to effectuate the policies of the Act.

(a) Furnish to the Union in a timely manner the information requested by the Union on August 9 and September 9, 2016, with the exception of item 17 in each letter.

(b) Within 14 days after service by the Region, post at its facility in Edgartown, Massachusetts, copies of the attached notice marked "Appendix."<sup>5</sup> Copies of the notice, on forms provided by the Regional Director for Region 1, after being signed by the Respondent's authorized representative, shall be posted by the Respondent and maintained for 60 consecutive days in conspicuous places, including all places where notices to employees are <sup>3</sup> The Respondent states in its answer that it "is without sufficient knowledge to admit or deny" the complaint allegation that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Sec. 2(5) of the Act. The Respondent made the same statement in answer to the complaint in Transit I. The Board found there that the Union was a labor organization, noting that the Respondent had stipulated to the Union's labor organization status in the underlying representation proceeding. For the same reasons, we find here that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Sec. 2(5) of the Act.

<sup>4</sup> As noted above, the Respondent denies receiving the Union's May 17 and 24 requests, but specifically admits receiving the August 9 request and does not deny receiving the September 9 request. Because the date on which the Respondent first received the Union's request for information does not affect the remedy, we rely on the uncontested facts that the Respondent received the August 9 and September 9 requests, which included all of the requested information described in par. 10 of the complaint. See Transit I, supra slip op. at 2 fn. 3.

<sup>5</sup> If this Order is enforced by a judgment of a United States court of appeals, the words in the notice reading "Posted by Order of the National Labor Relations Board" shall read "Posted Pursuant to a Judgment of the United States Court of Appeals Enforcing an Order of the National Labor Relations Board."

customarily posted. In addition to physical posting of paper notices, notices shall be distributed electronically, such as by email, posting on an intranet or an internet site, and/or other electronic means, if the Respondent customarily communicates with its employees by such means. Reasonable steps shall be taken by the Respondent to ensure that the notices are not altered, defaced, or covered by any other material. If the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facility involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since August 9, 2016.

(c) Within 21 days after service by the Region, file with the Regional Director for Region 1 a sworn certification of a responsible official on a form provided by the Region attesting to the steps that the Respondent has taken to comply.
